DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

These issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcome because his priority is to protect this country from illegals with unknown background and possibly create problem. I believe this will create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views. At the end of day he is our nations president for the next four years and we all have to work together to form the best possible country we can. In my opinion topics that are the forefront of concern could be the safety of Mr. Donald J Trump and his family because of the recent threats that have been directed toward him and the white house. Aswell as the safety of many citizens involved in the government. Another topic could be the persecution of christians in America due to hatred and division of beliefs.
